17. Card of Thanks

Thanks be to God for all his mercies during our bereavement, and since. And for all the friends, neighbors and kin who visited, and those who brought food, phoned, gave flowers or money or sent cards. Our thanks go out also to the pastors of our community who visited and offered up prayers along with our christian friends. A special thanks goes to our pastor Rev. Robert E. Lee, and our wonderful rescue squad who helped us a number of times. May God bless all of you.

Mrs. Paul R. Seay, Warren And David

SS Cooperative slates membership day July 23

Report of elections of local Advisory Board members, Farm Home Advisory Committee members and operations reports will highlight the Southern States Cooperative's membership day for Coleman & Sons, Inc., Appomattox, on July 23.

The event will be held at the store and will begin at 1 p.m. The business session is slated to start at 2 p.m.

"The Membership Day," according to managers Ronald and Dan Coleman, "will give patrons and members the opportunity to become better acquainted with our facilities, products and services. The local election is being held prior to the meeting with members voting by mail ballots. Members who have not marked their mail ballot should do so and deposit it in the ballot box prior to the beginning of the meeting, so their vote will be counted. All stockholder members are particularly urged to attend the business session."

B. J. Lucado of Appomattox will serve as chairman of the local meeting.

G. M. Slater of Richmond, a member of Southern States Cooperative's regional staff, will report on the over-all Southern States operations. His report will also include a 12-15 minute slide-tape presentation entitled "You Are Here", which will show the co-op's broad involvement everywhere Southern States is involved because the co-op is set up so that the people running it keep the member-patrons interest the number one priority.

Theme of the meeting will be, "You Are Here."

There will be special recognition for local board and Farm Home Advisory Committee members who retire this year.

Nominees for the local board are: Dennis W. Drinkard, Hunt P. Hamilton, Twyman Phelps, Appomattox, and J. H. Rosser, Pamplin.

Ladies nominated for the Farm Home Advisory Committee are: Mrs. H. T. Burger, Mrs. J. E. Baxter, Mrs. T. W. Harrison, and Mrs. Armin Thomas of Appomattox.

Refreshments will be served following adjournment.

Attends Boston music workshop

Professional musician and Appomattox educator Frank Coffey will attend a special Music Educators Summer Workshop to be held at Berklee College of Music in Boston, Mass. July 7 - 25.

As a participant in the three-week program, Coffey may elect intensive study in one or more clinics and workshops, encompassing such topics as jazz improvisation and rock arranging, synthesizer techniques, the jazz tradition and guitar instruction. These summer seminars, offered primarily to school music instructors, are designed to give exposure to techniques relevant to contemporary music education programs.

All workshops will be directed by members of the Berklee faculty, who will give instruction in educational methodology geared to stimulate and sustain the musical interest of the young student. A resident of Concord, Coffey teaches Instrumental Music at Appomattox County High School.
